As you will be aware, space in our car parks is at a premium – could those of us who are able bodied enough to walk a short distance please park nearby, so that space can be prioritised for people with mobility issues and with children? If you do use the church car park, please remember to leave a note of your name on the dashboard if you are parked behind, or are blocking another car – name slips are available at the welcome desk in the foyer. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Heidi Baker is coming to Glasgow on 15 & 16th May, in Glasgow Royal Concert Hall, hosted by Victory Christian Centre. Tickets are £20 per night or £35 for two nights. If you would like to go with a group from Bearsden Baptist Church, please contact Joe, our administrator, with a preference of which night.

Lynne and Sitongua Laussu's visit on the 26th May - We are delighted that Lynne and Sitongua Laussu, recently returned from many years' missionary work in various parts of Africa, will be visiting us again on Sunday 26th May, and we are really looking forward to hearing their news and plans. As we did last August, we plan to celebrate their visit with a "bring-your-own-lunch" event to be held immediately after the morning service. Whether you come with a picnic hamper or a jeelie piece in a poke (a jam sandwich in a small bag), we guarantee you'll have a great time. Tea, coffee and fruit will be provided. Please do come along!

Thank you to everyone who donated to the recent collection for those affected in Mozambique, Zimbabwe and Malawi by the devastation caused by Cyclone Idai. The sum of £420 was recently sent to Tear Fund to aid this cause.
